Please note: Features, finishes specifications and choice of Vendor's samples (as per plan) are subject to availability and may be changed without notice. Purchaser may be required to reselect colours/materials from Vendor's samples as a result of dye lot variations, unavailability or discontinuation. Vendor may substitute materials for those designed in plans and specifications provided such materials are equal to or better than those designed.

Variations from Vendor's samples may occur in finishing materials, kitchen and vanity cabinets, floor and wall finishes due to normal production and installation process. Some features may vary by suite design. In the event of any inconsistencies between Schedule "D" and Schedule "A" in respect of ceiling height, the ceiling height noted in Schedule "A" prevails.
